

Study - Youth Empowerment in Agroecology in Laos, Myanmar, Cambodia and Vietnam

Quantitative questionnaire

National General Assembly
November 18th, 2025

Objectives of the Study

- Identify current context and understand the main factors influencing youth participation and empowerment in the agricultural sector
- Map key regional actors, analyze their approaches, and examine their visions for youth empowerment in agriculture
- Provide initial recommendations to guide the future program

Online Survey – 10 Questions

Purpose:

To gather perspectives from ALiSEA members and partners on the barriers, opportunities, and priorities for youth engagement in agriculture and agroecology.

Youth is defined according to the ASEAN standard as individuals aged 15 to 34 years. This study targets specifically young farmers, Universities and Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) students.

Instructions:

- It takes about 10 minutes
- Please answer baser on your organization's experience
- All responses are confidential and for research use only

